each area in your day to day practice in school. This can be used to identify foci for development within the school and to help you identify areas for development within your own appraisal cycle. A great deal of evidence will be found in your Appraisal Lesson Observation which will take place before your annual review.

Please fill in this form and pass to reviewer 5 DAYS before your annual Appraisal Review meeting. Discuss it with your reviewer during the meeting, to help decide whether you have met your pm objectives.
