Unit Name	Links to Curriculum Directory	Objectives	Lesson ideas	Assessment
Christian Writers	God revealed in different ways	CS Lewis is well known for his	See RE folder and SMa/MRo	Essay
CS Lewis	(Human reason and	Narnia series of books for	for any supporting material.	Reflective Journal contemporary arguments)	children. The course is designed	Note that other modern Faith – a response.	to introduce the students to his	Christian writers may be
	The relationship between faith	life and work with an emphasis	studied.
	and religion.	on his Christian talks, essays and Call to discipleship.	books.
	Jesus Christ – Son of God	Students will have an opportunity to study extracts from his books, reflect on and evaluate his arguments.
Current Affairs	The dignity of the human person.	Students have the opportunity to	Euthanasia (LGa/TPr)	Group Presentation or (Ethical Issues)	The Beatitudes. Catholic Social	study one ethical issue that is	Laudato Si (SMa)	Action Project
Link to Citizenship	teaching. Creation.	currently in the public eye.		Reflective Journal
/PSHE	g. e. care.	The course will look at Catholic , -		Christian responses and the response from at least one other religious tradition or Humanism.
		Appreciation of different ethical approaches is important and also the development of their own personal response is required.
Philosophy		A study of some of the big	An Examined Life (TPr/LGa)	Reflective Journal questions in life such as 'Does God exist?' ' Is there such a thing as Free Will?'
		Students can consider the philosophical questions that link to their own studies and the implications for life.

		A broad awareness of the arguments for the existence of God could be included (e.g.
Religion in the East Cambodia	Life in Christ: Gaudium et Spes The dignity of the human person 5. The Church and other non- Christians. The human community. (Human vocation and society, Human solidarity).	Thomas Aquinas). Build a basic understanding of the country, history, religions and culture of Cambodia. Take a detailed look at the events towards the end of the American-Vietnam war as portrayed in the film 'The Killing Fields'. Understand what has happened in Cambodia since the end of the 1970's until the present day, particularly focussing on fall and rise of the practice of Buddhism. Explore the beliefs of the Buddhist religion. Learn about the life and influences of Bishop Michael Evans and how the Paul VI's Popularum Progressio and the film influenced his decision to visit Cambodia and establish firstly a parish link and now a link between the Dioceses of Battambang and East Anglia.	Resources in folder and see SMa for more information.	Group Presentation or Action Project Reflective Journal Presentation on a recent trip to explore the impact of the war and aftermath on the Cambodian people, the work of the small catholic community in Battambang and the relationship between the different faith traditions.

	To learn about CAFOD's –
	Connect-to-Cambodia project.	