Head of Modern Foreign Languages (MFL), Norfolk

Required for September 2014

We are seeking to appoint an enthusiastic and well qualified leader with strong teaching and leadership skills and the experience, creativity, drive and interpersonal qualities to direct the future development of Modern Foreign Languages at Notre Dame High School Norwich.

The MFL department is a successful department that is committed to promoting the enjoyment of MFL and developing confident, inquisitive and skilled students. The school has been designated a Specialist Language College and the successful applicant will be expected to continue and build on this success.

The successful candidate can expect to:

- Be a leader of learning, playing a pivotal role in the pursuit of excellent practice in every classroom across a department.
- Work within an inclusive ethos where students are encouraged to be positive, responsive and develop a genuine desire to succeed.
- Experience a wide range of leadership responsibilities that are aimed at providing professional development in preparation for future promotion.

Notre Dame High School is an 11-18 highly successful and oversubscribed Roman Catholic school. Graded outstanding in our last Ofsted, we were granted academy status in March 2012. We are a thriving school in the centre of the busy and attractive city of Norwich. A striking feature of the school is the outstanding quality of relationships between students and teachers and between students themselves.

For an application form and further details including a job description and person specification, please visit our website at www.ndhs.org.uk

Preliminary visits to the school or discussions regarding the post are welcome by arrangement with Mr Jo Hammersley (Assistant Headteacher).

Closing date: Friday 9th May 2014 (0900)

Interview date: Wednesday 14th May 2014

Notre Dame High School welcomes applications from members of minority ethnic communities and those with disabilities. We participate in the Norfolk Well-being Programme. The school is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people and expects all staff and volunteers to share this commitment. You will be subject to DBS checks along with relevant employment checks.
