Subject	Revision guidance
ENGLISH	We have set up Google classrooms with English revision for students and will email link to students and inform in class.
MATHS	Revision for Mathematics should be conducted in two stages it should always be an active process. Only by “doing Maths” will you improve. Stage 1 (Before we complete the course) This should be topic based and focus on a topic that you are “shaky” on and review and practice this topic, when mastered move onto another topic. Materials for this are available in the schools library drive under maths. www.mymaths.co.uk will also help review topics and has interactive lessons to help too. Stage 2 (After we complete the course) Exam practice. We have supplied exam papers and mark schemes for 7 sets of papers at each level. These are also available in the school’s library drive. (due to copyright rules the mark schemes for these papers are only available in the library) We have Revision guides and Work books available from the Maths office to purchase. Maths Buster and Maths Watch DVDs are also available. There are also plenty of “how to” youtube clips etc available online.
SCIENCE	Kerboodle for full suite of GCSE text books, mp3 revision tapes, worksheets and exam practise questions.
