

Appendix A – Clerical rechecks, reviews of marking and appeals – Candidate consent form

Clerical re-checks, reviews of marking and appeals

Candidate consent form

Information for candidates

If your school or college submits a request for a clerical re-check or a review of the original marking, and then a subsequent appeal, for one of your examinations after your subject grade has been issued, there are three possible outcomes:

- Your original mark is lowered, so your final grade may be lower than the original grade you received.
- Your original mark is confirmed as correct, so there is no change to your grade.
- Your original mark is raised, so your final grade may be higher than the original grade you received.

To proceed with the clerical re-check or review of marking, you must sign the form below and email to exams@ndhs.org.uk from your school email address. This tells us that you have understood what the outcome might be, and that you give your consent to the clerical re-check or review of marking being submitted.

Details of review (awarding body, qualification level, subject title, component/unit)

I give my consent to the head of my school or college to submit a clerical re-check or a review of marking for the examination(s) listed above. In giving consent I understand that the final subject grade and/or mark awarded to me following a clerical re-check or a review of marking, and any subsequent appeal, may be lower than, higher than, or the same as the result which was originally awarded for this subject.
