

Y9 History	The 20th Century World
The Causes of WW1 (Causation)	Extending: Explain how the long term and trigger causes link together. Analyse the relative importance of each factor in causing the war. Begin to explore the historiography.
	Securing: Explain how the key MAIN factors and the trigger causes led to war. Begin to consider links.
	Developing: Describe some of the causes of the war.
The Significance of WW1	Extending: Evaluate the impact of WW1 on warfare, British society, and the political geography of Europe. Demonstrate detailed knowledge of a range of aspects of the impact of the war.
	Securing: Explain some key examples of the impact of WW1 on warfare, British society and the map of Europe.
	Developing: Describe in basic terms some of the changes brought about by the war.
Appeasement - Right or Wrong?	Extending: Explain in detail why there are different interpretations of appeasement, showing a confident grasp of the historical context.
	Securing: Explain why there are different interpretations of appeasement.
	Developing: Describe the different opinions people had of appeasement.
Why did the Allies win WW2?	Extending: Evaluate the key factors in the Allied victory, analysing the significance of the German/Russian War.
	Securing: Explain why the Allies won WW2 with reference to at least two key factors.
	Developing: Describe some of the reasons why the Allies won WW2.
The development of the Cold War	Extending: Evaluate the significance of the Berlin blockade for the development of the Cold War, demonstrating confident knowledge of the context.
	Securing: Explain how the Berlin Blockade worsened relations between the West and Russia.
	Developing: Describe the events of the Berlin Blockade.