

CAREERS BULLETIN

"Nothing is impossible, the word itself says 'I'm possible!'" – Audrey Hepburn

Empowering Positive Change Through Careers Education

Take part in the biggest celebration of careers across the country. This year many of the activities will be shared virtually, including the first ever NCW Virtual Careers Fair. There will be 5 virtual floors of global employers from across the key sectors providing an insight into life within the organisation and an overview of career opportunities.

VIRTUAL CAREERS FAIR

HTTPS://NCW2022.CO.UK/

The Virtual Careers Fair will go live on day 1 of Careers Week. All you need to do is share the website address with students.

- No registration required
- No data is collected from students.
- Tons of opportunities for students to explore

Police officer

New challenges every day.

<https://bit.ly/3s4p8tC>

When you become a police officer, no two days are ever the same. You'll be involved in everything from investigating crime to patrolling your local community. Helping vulnerable people to interviewing suspects. Giving evidence in court to educating young people. That's what makes Policing such a challenging and exciting career.

To ensure you're fully equipped to do your job safely and confidently, you'll receive world-class training. Through a Degree in Professional Policing, you'll develop personally and professionally with no skills that will serve you well as your career progresses. You'll receive a mix of classroom and on-the-job training which lets you earn while you learn.

Find out about entry requirements and routes via the link.

NATIONAL CAREERS WEEK AT

HTTPS://BIT.LY/3LS3XMK

Here at Notre Dame, we will be celebrating National Careers Week:

- Staff will be wearing badges to share their career history before starting out in the education sector.
- Classroom doors will display signs linking subject areas to career paths.
- We will be creating a whole school display, where every pupil will have the opportunity to write their HOPES and ASPIRATIONS for the future on a feather. This will become part of an installation like the image above.
